

Sailors' Society Christmas Carol Service

Readers

Temi Binitie

Temi Binitie is the co-founder of Afrimari, a professional networking group focusing on African Maritime related businesses, with Gemina Cooper in March 2007. In addition to her role at Afrimari, she commercially employs AET's European fleet of Aframax on the spot market. Temi has been with AET for five years, prior to which she worked at the European Headquarters of Hyundai Merchant Marine. She holds a distinction in Maritime and Commercial Law Master's degree and is a fully qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers.

Temi will be running the London Marathon 2014 on behalf of the Sailors' Society.

Scot Bower

Scot is Sailors' Society's Director Media and Advocacy. He previously worked at 24-7 Prayer where he drove strategy for multiple communications platforms, developed award winning multimedia resources and served on the international leadership team.

Scot and his family spent 5 years in Eastern Europe working with churches, charities and mission organizations, coaching leaders and advising on church development strategy.

Jeremy Penn

Jeremy Penn was appointed Chief Executive of the Baltic Exchange in 2003, following 20 years with Reuters Group PLC where he held a wide range of positions specialising in technology and marketing related to financial information. He was Managing Director of Reuters Asia and was appointed to Reuters Executive Committee in 1996. He has lived and worked in France, Zimbabwe, Morocco, Hong Kong, Australia, Singapore and the USA as well as the UK.

He is a non-executive Director and Treasurer of Maritime London. He is Vice-Chairman of Maritime UK.

He was educated at Warwick School and Corpus Christi College, Oxford and later took the Advanced Management Programme at Harvard Business School.

Andrew Pitcher

After gaining a Diploma in Accounting Studies at Oxford Polytechnic Andrew trained and qualified as a Chartered Certified Accountant in 1988 with the international accountancy firm Ernst & Young, before joining a local firm of accountants. He joined the Society as Director of Finance in 1998.

